Sherry Southern

Sublett Cemetery District Chairperson

Attending: Russell Zollinger, Tony Rigby, Sherry Southern, and Alle Williams

The budget hearing was called to order at 7:34 PM at the Sublett Fire Building on August 28, 2023.

Alle read the minutes. R. Zollinger moved to approve the minutes and was seconded by T. Rigby. The minutes from the previous meetings were initialed.

Old Business:

Gary Ward ripped up the check which was paid to him for mowing the cemetery. Sherry spoke with Tyler Gilbert, and he will be spraying the cemetery again.

New Business:

Sherry says that she would like to mow again, but because of the weather conditions that had yet to happen. She also hasn't gotten the mower fixed yet. Sherry had not heard back on the replacement stones which had been ordered through Memorial Monuments.

Sherry Southern and Tony Rigby are up for reelection. Sherry dispersed election packets and instructed that they need to be completed and given back to Alle so that they can be submitted to the County Clerk prior to September 8, 2023. The L2 paperwork has been completed and will be turned into the County along with the reelection packets.

The committee initialed the invoice for the payment of publishing the budget in the Times News in the amount of $81.34. The bank balance as of August 28, 2023, was $5,241.43 after the payment to Times News.

The upcoming new year's meeting schedule was discussed and agreed upon. The dates currently are:

November 6, 2023 at 6:30
February 5, 2024 at 6:30
May 6, 2024 at 7:30
August 5, 2024 at 7:30
August 25, 2024 at 7:30 for the Budget Hearing

No protest was made during the hearing and the budget was passed.
Russell Zollinger motioned to adjourn the meeting at 8:00 PM and Tony Rigby seconded the motion.
